

Drama/Theatre Arts

Major Preparation Sheet 2017-2018

Where does my path start?

You will complete an Associate of Arts – Direct Transfer Agreement (AA-DTA) at Shoreline.

Use the AA -DTA Degree Planning Guide, with this sheet, to understand the requirements for graduation.

Once you complete your Shoreline degree, you can transfer to a four-year school to earn a baccalaureate degree in Drama or Theatre Arts.

Drama/Theatre Arts is also an excellent major for graduate studies in Humanities, Social Sciences, Business and Education.

What is Drama/Theatre Arts?

The study of Drama and Theatre Arts encompasses knowledge of dramatic literature, the history of theatrical production, theatrical performance and the role of theatre arts in society. Students learn to analyze, interpret and critique dramatic literature and performances. In addition, students often specialize in a specific area of theatrical study as described below.

Areas of Study in Drama: Theater Performance, Dramatic Literature and Traditions, Craft of Acting, Theatrical Production, Stage Design, Costume Design, Experimental Theater, Lighting, Playwriting, and Directing.
